Gorgeous wood paneling on all sides, including the ceiling, make this sitting room a wonder to behold. Finely carved mouldings overhang built-in bookshelves; all stained a dark and beautiful color that complements the lighter leather furniture. Wall-to-wall carpeting is a comfortable touch, and three windows usher in natural light during the day, with Venetian blinds for privacy at night. In compartments over the window transoms, ornamental silver vessels provide refined décor and a dash of polish.
